

The Bulletin's Circulation in Norwich is Double That of Any Other Paper, and Its Total Circulation is the Largest in Connecticut in Proportion to the City's Population

BRITISH STEADILY PUSHING FORWARD

Moving Toward the Peronne-Bapaume Road, Behind
German Lines North of Combles

TAKE 500 YDS. OF TRENCHES EAST OF LE BOUFES

The Germans Are Strongly Contesting British Occupancy of the Territory Between Thiepval and the Ancre—In Transylvania the Austro-Germans Have Repulsed the Rumanians at Hermannstadt—In Macedonia the Entente Allied Troops Are Withstanding Bulgarian Attacks—German Imperial Chancellor, in His Address to the Reichstag, Declared That the German Line on the Somme Front "Stands Firm and Unshaken."

Steadily the British troops are pushing forward toward the Peronne-Bapaume road, the main artery immediately behind the German lines north of Combles. After taking 500 yards of trenches southeast of Le Sars, General Sir Douglas Haig's men made additional progress in the capture of 500 yards of German trenches east of Le Boufes.

The British occupancy of the territory between Thiepval and the Ancre is being contested strongly by the Germans. A German counter-attack, following the entry of the British into a part of the Hessian trench, resulted in the forcing out of the holders. The section was regained later, however, by the British, London says. Heavy fighting also has occurred around the Sturp redoubt.

Ruin is hampering operations on the remainder of the Anglo-French front north of the Somme, according to official statements. Paris mentions no activity following the advance between Fregicourt and Morval toward Sully, on the Peronne-Bapaume road.

There has been no great activity on any of the other fronts in Europe, except in Transylvania, where the Austro-Germans have repulsed the Rumanians at Hermannstadt. Vienna says the Teutonic forces also have occupied the heights east and southeast of the town after violent fighting. The battle in this section, however, has not yet been finished.

The intense fighting in this region

LIFE PRESERVER MARKED

"BREMEN" PICKED UP

On the Ocean Side of Cape Elizabeth, Coast of Maine.

Portland, Maine, Sept. 29.—A life preserver marked "Bremen," the name of the German submarine freighter which has been generally expected to arrive at some Atlantic port for the past week or more, was picked up on the ocean side of Cape Elizabeth today.

The name "Bremen" was stenciled in black letters two inches high on both sides of the buoy. On one side of the canvas covering was printed a small crown. Over this mark were the words "Stutz-marke" meaning patented trademark. Beneath were the words "V. Epping-Hoven Wilhelmshaven." This indicated, apparently, the name of the vessel.

The preserver seemed to be new and apparently had not been in the water a great length of time. It was stenciled with oil. An officer of the coast guard cutter service who examined the buoy, said that if the preserver were present at the time and place, he thought to play a practical joke, he had done a very good job.

The preserver was well marked and the lettering and the ink were of the best quality.

The buoy was picked up at a small place known as Maiden Cove, by a ten-year-old lad, Frederick Lakeman of Westbrook. A number of other persons were present at the time and saw the youth pick up the object near the water's edge. The buoy was taken to a newspaper office, where it was photographed and examined by many seafaring men.

TRAMP AS CARRIER OF

INFANTILE PARALYSIS GERMS

Health Authorities of New Jersey Are Working on That Theory.

New York, Sept. 29.—Health authorities in New Jersey, it became known today, are searching for a tramp believed to have been a carrier of infantile paralysis germs, on the theory that his case provides the best evidence available that the disease is spread by adult human carriers. It is believed the man transmitted the disease to three children of a farmer near Patrick's Corners, N. J., who are the outlet of the plague had shut his family off from all outside communication.

The case is being studied by the United States health officials. It is said, and with good reason, that the tramp, described as a Hungarian known only as Zekel, is expected to result.

The most rigid quarantine was established by the farmer.

SOCIALIST PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE IN NEW YORK.

Allan L. Benson Has Swung "Half Around the Circle."

New York, Sept. 29.—Allan L. Benson, socialist candidate for president, arrived here today, completing the first half of his "swing around the circle" which began Aug. 27. After addressing two meetings in Brooklyn to campaign he is to leave on the last half of his campaign trip, speaking in San Francisco Oct. 12.

"I met big and enthusiastic audiences," he said, "and I am confident that the candidate will speak in Syracuse tomorrow night and will go there to town mid-west and Pennsylvania states."

Cabled Photographs

Paris, Sept. 29, 5.30 p. m.—Sarah Bernhardt expected tomorrow for the United States.

TO CONDUCT THE

JEM. NATIONAL CAMPAIGN.

Printing Will Cost Three Times as Much as in 1912 Because of Increased Cost of Paper.

New York, Sept. 29.—A fund of $1,500,000 will be required to conduct the democratic national campaign, according to a statement made here tonight by Henry Morgenthau, treasurer of the national campaign committee. He declared New York was expected to contribute about one-third of this amount, which exceeds by about $400,000 the amount spent in the 1912 campaign.

"As an example of the increased cost of the campaign," Mr. Morgenthau said, the printing bill alone would be three times as much as it was in 1912 because of the increased price of paper. He announced that contributions thus far received from the state of New York, those which had been sent up in the same date in 1912. There have been several contributions of $10,000 each, but only three of more than that sum, he said.

Thomas L. Chadbourne has been appointed chairman of the New York state finance committee of the national committee. It was announced. He expects to have 25 sub-committees at work within a few days.

HUGHES REPEATS VIEWS

ON PROTECTIVE TARIFF

Declares He Is Not Opposed to Principle of Eight Hour Day.

Hornell, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Charles E. Hughes went through the southern tier of counties in New York state today, his political friends and the return of a telegram from Jeremiah A. O'Leary of New York, president of the American Truth Society, accusing him of being pro-British and saying that he had failed to obtain compliance with American rights.

The president sent Mr. O'Leary a long Branch, N. J., Sept. 29.—President Wilson made it plain tonight that he wants no "disloyal" American in his cabinet. He said that the return of a telegram from Jeremiah A. O'Leary of New York, president of the American Truth Society, accusing him of being pro-British and saying that he had failed to obtain compliance with American rights.

An Invaluable Aid to Any Business

This is the season of the year when the householders are in each of new things. The want lists are longer than during the quiet periods and they are anxious to know what is being offered in new materials, new designs, new garments, new furnishings, in fact they want to know where they can meet their requirements to the best advantage.

It is not possible for all to give up the time that would be required in visiting all the shops on a tour of inspection, but they do have spare moments which are devoted to the study of the advertisements which are put forth by the business houses which are seeking their trade.

The wise merchant will therefore utilize the business developing assistance of the newspaper and in doing so he should insist upon getting the service that carries his announcements into the most homes. That is what The Bulletin is furnishing every week day. It is an invaluable aid to any line of business.

The matter carried in the columns of The Bulletin during the past week is summarized as follows:

Bulletin

Telegraph Local General Total

Saturday, Sept. 23.. 150 178 1089 1417

Monday, Sept. 25.. 118 162 236 516

Tuesday, Sept. 26.. 116 213 201 530

Wednesday, Sept. 27.. 121 174 222 517

Thursday, Sept. 28.. 134 154 311 599

Friday, Sept. 29.. 131 157 251 539

Totals 870 1038 2310 4118

ROOSEVELT-TAFT CAMPAIGN

BUTTONS NOT TO BE WORN.

Only Hughes Buttons at Union League Reception of Republican Nominee.

New York, Sept. 29.—No campaign buttons bearing pictures of Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft and Charles E. Hughes were to be worn at the Union League club reception in honor of the republican presidential candidate next Tuesday evening. It was announced by the committee in charge of the reception.

Mr. Hughes' buttons, which are distributed by the campaign committee, are the only ones to be worn at the reception. The committee in charge of the reception said that the buttons of the other candidates were not to be worn.

PARKER DENIES HE OFFERED

TO SPEAK FOR WILSON.

Is to Make Tour "as a Progressive" Opposed to Hughes.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 29.—John M. Parker, progressive republican, denied today that he had written to President Wilson offering to speak for him at the New York reception.

Mr. Parker said that he had written to President Wilson offering to speak for him at the New York reception. He said that he had written to President Wilson offering to speak for him at the New York reception.

GERARD COMING HOME

MERELY FOR VACATION

Not Because of Renewed Agitation in Germany Over Submarine Warfare.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Secretary Lansing today authorized the statement that Ambassador Gerard, now on his way home, was coming for a vacation, was coming for a vacation, was coming for a vacation.

Mr. Gerard is coming home for a vacation. He is not coming home because of renewed agitation in Germany over submarine warfare.

BURTON WILSON HAS BEEN ORDERED TO LEAVE MEXICO

Was Recently Imprisoned on Charges of "Perilous Activity."

Washington, Sept. 29.—Burton Wilson, an American citizen, president of the Panama Citizens' committee and the American club in Mexico City, was recently imprisoned on charges of "perilous activity," by Mexican government officials, has been released and ordered to leave the country.

Consul Canda at Vera Cruz called the state department today of Mr. Wilson's arrival at that port, en route to the United States. Mr. Wilson has been taken on board the battleship Nebraska and will remain there until transportation home can be arranged. No details of the charges against him have reached Washington.

Two Negroes Lynched.

Nowata, Okla., Sept. 29.—Two negroes, accused of being implicated in the killing of Deputy Sheriff James Gibson during a jail delivery here today, were taken from the jail by a mob and lynched in front of the court house.

Wilson Indignant at Criticism

OF JEREMIAH A. O'LEARY OF NEW YORK

Resents Accusations of Being Pro-British—Calls O'Leary a Disloyal American and Tells Him He Would Be Mortified by His Vote.

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 29.—President Wilson made it plain tonight that he wants no "disloyal" American in his cabinet. He said that the return of a telegram from Jeremiah A. O'Leary of New York, president of the American Truth Society, accusing him of being pro-British and saying that he had failed to obtain compliance with American rights.

The president sent Mr. O'Leary a long Branch, N. J., Sept. 29.—President Wilson made it plain tonight that he wants no "disloyal" American in his cabinet. He said that the return of a telegram from Jeremiah A. O'Leary of New York, president of the American Truth Society, accusing him of being pro-British and saying that he had failed to obtain compliance with American rights.

HEAD OF TRUTH SOCIETY

IN RECEIVERS' HANDS

Common Stock, Which a Year Ago Sold for a Fraction of a Dollar, Recently Rose to $51—Discharge of Receivers to be Asked for.

New York, Sept. 29.—The way was paved today for the discharge of the receivers for the International Mercantile Marine company and the return of its management to the security holders. Common and preferred stockholders by majority vote approved at a special meeting in Hoboken, N. J., a reorganization plan which provides, among other important features, for the taking of $7,500,000 cash from the company's treasury to retire half the outstanding bonds, with new 6 per cent. bonds to replace the other half.

Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Again we greet you with a popular disapproval of your pro-British policies. Last year from the 2nd New York congressional district, you now from your own state and from the voters of your party. Senator Martine won because the voters of New Jersey do not want any trucking to the British empire nor do they approve of dictatorship over Congress.

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by actions? Mr. O'Leary's telegram given out by the president, follows:

"Your policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leaving with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know the William S. Bennett, a republican congressman, ran in the democratic primaries in the twenty-third congressional district, and polled 36 per cent. of the total democratic vote against his regular democratic opponent, Anglo-manics and British imperialism. He was defeated. They don't control votes. The people may be readers but they are not followers. When, sir, will you respond to these